What other things can you do on vacation?

Ranking

Choose the three most important items to take on vacation. Explain your choices.

credit card

suitcase

camera

clothes

friend

1.

2.

3.

I think a _____ is the most important thing to bring because...

Phrasal Verb

Talk to your teacher and classmates about this phrasal verb and answer the question.

---

to kick back = to relax

Example: I'm going to the swimming pool because I want to kick back by the water.

How do you like to kick back on vacation?

Pronunciation Practice

Listen to your teacher say the words. Practice saying them. Make a sentence using at least two of the words.

A.	B.
beach	batch
shop	ship
swim	swam
sleep	slip
eat	ate

Do you like to swim in a pool or at the beach? Why?

Grammar Practice

Talk about the word most. Then, answer the questions.

The word most can be used to talk about what a large group of people do.
Here is the pattern: most + plural noun

Example: Most schools have summer vacation.
Most people like to eat ice cream.
Most hotels have a restaurant.

Practice using most. Ask and answer these questions.

1. Where do most people shop in your city?
2. Why do most people go on vacation in the summer?
3. What do most people do at night?

In my city most people shop _____.

Most people go on vacation in the summer because _____.

Most people _____ at night.

Culture Corner

Read the paragraph about culture and discuss.

Orlando, Florida is the home of Disney World. It is one of the most popular places in the U.S. to take a vacation. Every year, more than 17,000,000 people visit Disney World.

1. What is the most popular place to take a vacation in your country?
2. What can people do at this place?
3. Do you want to take a vacation to Disney World? Why or why not?

Make a Story

Work with your teacher and classmates to make a story with the picture.

Take turns adding to the story. Explain what happened before, during and after the pictures. You have to continue the story from where your classmate stopped.

Dialogue

Read the lines with a classmate. Take turns.

Lauren: Have fun on your vacation. Where are you going?

Jake: I'm going to New York City.

Lauren: What will you do there?

Jake: I'm going to go shopping, eat at nice restaurants, and take a lot of pictures of famous places.

Lauren: That's great! What will you bring on vacation?

Jake: I'll bring my camera, my credit card and my suitcase.

Dialogue Fill in the Blank

Read the lines with a classmate and fill in your own responses.

Lauren: Have fun on your vacation. _____?

Jake: I'm going to _____.

Lauren: What will you do there?

Jake: I'm going to _____.

Lauren: That's great! What will you bring on vacation?

Jake: I'll bring my _____.

Role Play

Choose a role and act it out. Take turns.

Role 1: Ask a friend about his/her vacation.

Ask:
- Where your friend is going.
- What your friend will do there.
- What your friend will bring.
- Why your friend wants to go there.

Role 2: Tell a friend about your vacation.

Tell your friend:
- You are going to Cancún, Mexico, because you want to kick back at a nice hotel on the beach.
- what you will bring.
- what you plan to do there.

Group Role Play

Read the situation and act it out with your classmates.

Your class is going on vacation together. Decide what you should bring for each part of the vacation.

Things to do on your vacation:

1. Sightseeing in famous places
2. Dinner at a nice restaurant
3. A day trip to the beach

Language to Use:
We're going to...
I think we should bring...
We'll need...

Wrap Up

Talk with your class and answer the questions.

Putting it all together:

- Name three things you need to bring on vacation.
- Name three things you can do on vacation.
- When do you use the word most?
- What are the most popular places to take a vacation in your classmates' countries?
